

MASTERS 2022 – April 4th through April 10th

1. DNL will be a controlled field THE ENTIRE WEEK: Monday, April 3rd through Sunday, April 10th.
2. Parking reservations are HIGHLY ENCOURAGED through Flight Bridge and can be made on the Augusta Aviation website.
3. There are no slot reservations required to ARRIVE at nor DEPART from DNL.
4. There is plenty of parking on the ramp at KDNL. No parking reservations are required.
5. Traffic management during Masters Week includes, but is not limited to reroutes, miles-in-trail, altitude restrictions, ground stops and ground delay programs.
6. The most up to date information will be available through flight services when filing your flight plan.
7. The longest runway at DNL is 5/23 at 4002'. Please note, the "effective" runway lengths for takeoff on R/W 23 and landing on R/W 5, based on runway gradient of 1.2%, are 4,482'.
8. For hotel information, visit the Augusta Convention and Visitors Bureau website at www.VisitAugusta.com.
9. For Enterprise rental car information, please email Gabriel Soto at Gabriel.Soto@ehi.com. Be sure to note in your email you are flying into Daniel Field Airport (DNL).
10. Daniel Field is less than 3 miles from the Augusta National Golf Course. Taxi service is readily available to take golf patrons to and from the course with very little to no wait time.
